Computing

Lesson 3: Credibility of sources

Gaining support for a cause

Ben Garside

Task 1 - Real news or fake news

- You have 10 minutes to write a news article.
- Pick a topic that interests you and that you may already have some knowledge about (think about something that you are studying in other subjects, such as History or Geography).
- Decide whether to make it a real or fake news article.
- Write a paragraph or two on your topic and try to hide two clues that would indicate whether the article is real or fake.

Task 1: Your article

Use the space below to write a paragraph or two on your topic and try to hide two clues that would indicate whether the article is real or fake.

Task 2 - Who is your audience?

1. Delete all of the categories on the following slide that you don't think are relevant for your blog post.

2. Add three more audience categories that would also be relevant for the audience of your blog post.

Task 2 - Who is your audience?

Girl

Boy

Donates money to charity

Age 10 – 13

Has a mobile phone

Age 3 – 5

Age 5 – 10

Age 14 – 18

Has no experience of issue

Adult

Has some knowledge of issue

Volunteers

Cares about the environment

Uses social media

Uses the internet

Married

Single

In a relationship

Doesn't use social media

Doesn't have a mobile phone

Doesn't use the internet

Lives in the local area

Plays a sport