

Spanish

Planning what to do [1 / 3]

- Using the 1st and 3rd person singular in the future tense

Señorita Brown

llegar

ll

llave

llevar

llamar

amarillo

ella

salir

l

palabra

lista

libro

luz

luego

[later; then]

| | |
|-----------|-------------------------------------|
| llevar | to take, taking/ to carry, carrying |
| bajar | to go down, going down |
| subir | to go up, going up |
| el regalo | gift |
| a gusto | comfortable, content |
| triste | sad |
| fuerte | strong |
| a pie | by foot |

The future tense

To form the future tense in Spanish with regular verbs, start with the infinitive:

e.g. Comprar to buy, buying

Then add an ending depending on who is doing the action.

For I, add 'é'

For s/he/it add 'á'

e.g. Compraré I will buy

e.g. Comprará He/She/It will buy

Summary

1. Regalo means gift.
2. Llevar means to take, taking / to carry, carrying
3. Triste means sad.
4. To say 'I' will do something in the future add é to the infinitive.
5. To say 'He/She/It' will do something add á to the infinitive.

