

Spanish

Making plans for an exchange [2/3]

- Using the near future with 'we' and 'they'
- Using idiomatic expressions with 'ir

Señorita Vázquez

OAK NATIONAL ACADEMY

imagen

[ge] recoger

gesto

argentino

generalmente

	Word	English meaning
1	comer	to eat, eating
2	la ropa de calle	casual clothes / non-uniform clothes
3	juntos	together
4	hacer turismo	to go sightseeing, going sightseeing
5	el edificio	building
6	la visita guiada	guided tour
7	el paseo	walk
8	los/las demás	the others

Using the near future - we & they

To talk about what we're going to do we use the correct part of the verb 'ir' ('vamos') followed by 'a' and an infinitive.

Vamos a llevar ropa de calle.

We are going to wear non-uniform clothes.

To talk about what they're going to do we use the correct part of the verb 'ir' ('van') followed by 'a' and an infinitive.

Van a comer churros.

They are going to eat churros.

Using idiomatic phrases with 'ir de'

We use 'ir' followed by the preposition 'de' in some idiomatic expressions.

ir de compras to go shopping

paseo to go for a walk

visit to visit

tapas to go round the bars and have some tapas

fiesta to go out (night out/party)

Remember to use the correct form of the verb (to go → ir).

Empareja los números con las letras

1. vamos is used to talk about future plans with 'we'.

a) de

2. Van is used to talk about future plans with 'they'.

b) hacer

3. 'Ir' de de paseo is an idiomatic expression.

c) vamos

4. Van a hacer una visita guiada.

d) turismo

5. Vamos a hacer turismo.

e) van

