

Latin

Irregular Verbs: possum and poteram

Downloadable Resource

Mr Furber

The Irregular Verb 'to be able'

Present Tense		Imperfect Tense
possum	I am able	poteram	I was able
potes	You (s) are able	poteras	You (s) were able
potest	She is able	poterat	She was able
possumus	We are able	poteramus	We were able
potestis	You (pl) are able	poteratis	You (pl) were able
possunt	They are able	poterant	They were able

Main Task 2

Translate into English.

1. legere poteram.
2. currere poteramus.
3. villam intrare poteratis.
4. canis consumere poterat.
5. cibum portare non possumus.
6. laetae erant quod manere poterant.

Challenge

Translate these especially tricky sentences.

1. currebamus. superare non poteram. primus es.
2. consumere poteratis. laeti eratis. ambulare non potestis.

Review

Only turn to this section once you have completed the main task(s).

Main Task 2

Correct your answers.

1. legere poteram. I was able to read.
2. currere poteramus. We were able to run.
3. villam intrare poteratis. You (pl) were able to enter the house.
4. canis consumere poterat. The dog was able to eat.
5. cibum portare non possumus. We are not able to carry the food.
6. laetae erant quod manere poterant. They were happy because they were able to stay.

Challenge

Correct your answers.

1. currebamus. superare non poteram. primus es.

We were running. I was not able to overpower. You (s) are first.

2. consumere poteratis. laeti eratis. ambulare non potestis.

You (pl) were able to eat. You (pl) were happy. You (pl) are not able to walk.

