

Spanish

Describing what people do & are going to do

[2/2]

- Contrasting 'ir' for routine actions and future plans:
1st & 3rd person plural

Señorita Vázquez

elegir

[g*i*]

original

Versión original

página

imaginar

religion

colegio

	Word	English meaning
1	el mensaje	message
2	la llamada	call
3	electrónico	electronic, digital
4	el correo	mail, post
5	mandar	to send
6	el recuerdo	souvenir, memory
7	la mujer	woman
8	después	after
9	la pulsera	bracelet
10	cenar	to have dinner, having dinner

Routine actions and future plans

To talk about what someone is going to do (future plans), use part of the verb 'ir' + a + infinitive:

Vamos a la ciudad.

We go to the city.

Routine action.

Vamos a viajar a Italia.

We are going to travel to Italy.

Future plan.

Use 'a' plus an infinitive to make this a sentence about the future.

Routine actions and future plans

To talk about what someone is going to do (future plans), use part of the verb 'ir' + a + infinitive:

Van a la plaza.

They go to the square.

Routine action.

Van a visitar Madrid.

They are going to visit Madrid.

Future plan.

Use 'a' plus an infinitive to make this a sentence about the future.

Using 'ir' for future intentions & routine actions

Remember that the verb 'ir' (to go) does not follow the rules of other regular verbs.

I go voy

S/he goes va + a + infinitive

We go vamos

They go van

Respuestas

1. We go = vamos

2. They go = van

3. 'Van a ir al cine' refers to:

a) future intention b) routine action

4. 'We're going to go' =

a) Vamos b) vamos a ir

5. They are going to visit = van a visitar

