Lesson 5 of 10

Mrs Howley

Butterfly would not let the rain spoil the party. She was excited but she had lots to do. She was always busy. First, she needed to make sure that everyone would be there. How could she cheer Snail up? He looked so fed up.

Snail looked down at the wet ground. He wished they would leave him alone.

‘Go away!’ said Snail in a grumpy voice. ‘I don’t like parties!’ He tried to hurry away but he was so slow. This made him even more fed up!
