

Solving multiplication word problems

Mathematics

Miss Sabzvari

Independent Task

Solve the word problems using bar modelling.

There are five tables full in the lunch hall. If four children fit on a table, how many children are there altogether?

Bananas come in bunches of five. There are four bunches of bananas in the lunch hall. How many bananas are there in total?

