

The Infinitive Worksheet

Latin

Mr Furber

The Infinitive

English	Latin
I	-O
You (s)	-S
He/she	-t
We	-mus
You (pl)	-tis
They	-nt
To (infinitive)	-re

Main Task 1

Translate into English.

1. *salutarere

2. *ambularere

3. *clamass.

4. *consumerere

5. *clamarere

6. *salutamus.

7. *scriberere

8. *haberere

9. *expectattis.

10. *videntur.

Main Task 2

Translate into English.

1. porta cibum!
2. non scribitis.
3. cibum porto.
4. expecta, amice.
5. expectate currere!
6. audite semper, sed nolite clamare!

Challenge

Translate these especially tricky sentences.

1. mater filium cibum portare exspectat.
2. *pater filiam portare cibum exspectare
paratus est.*

Review

Only turn to this section once you have completed the main task(s).

Main Task 1: Review

Correct your answers.

1. to greet	6. We greet.
2. to walk	7. to write
3. You (s) shout.	8. to have
4. to eat	9. You (pl) wait.
5. to shout	10. They see/look.

Main Task 2: Review

Correct your answers.

1. porta cibum! Carry the food! (s)
2. non scribitis. You (pl) do not write.
3. cibum porto. I carry the food.
4. expecta, amice. Wait, friend.
5. expectate currere! Wait to run! (pl)
6. audite semper, sed nolite clamare! Always listen, but don't shout!

Challenge: Review

Correct your answers.

1. mater filium cibum portare exspectat. The mother waits for the son to carry the food.
2. pater filiam portare cibum exspectare paratus est. The father is prepared to wait for the daughter to carry the food.

