

English

Lesson 16: Jane Eyre

The mysterious Mr Rochester

Downloadable Resource

Mr Johnston

OAK
NATIONAL ACADEMY

How does Jane feel about Mr Rochester?

Option 1

Jane is disgusted by Mr Rochester.

Option 2

Jane isn't interested in Mr Rochester.

Option 3

Jane feels curious about Mr Rochester.

Option 4

Jane is angry with Mr Rochester.

True or false

1. A Byronic hero hates everyone.
2. Byronic heroes have lots of friends.
3. Byronic heroes are extremely passionate.
4. A Byronic hero holds many dark secrets.
5. A Byronic hero is unattractive.
6. A Byronic hero is often a rebel.

How does Brontë present Rochester?

Upon first impression, Rochester comes across as rather intimidating.

In addition, Rochester seems to be very moody.

Brontë also presents Rochester as a mysterious man through this conversation.

But it is clear that Rochester is very curious about Jane.

Ignores	'Grim' facial features	Orders	Piano and sketches
Mrs Fairfax says that Rochester has 'painful thoughts.'	'Men in green'	Byronic hero	Mrs Fairfax says that he can be 'changeable and abrupt.'

