

French

Discussing Career Choices [2 / 3]

- Using the conditional

Madame Sheikh

OAK NATIONAL ACADEMY

[SFC]

danX

Shhhhh!

[SFC]

c r f l

Be c a r e f u l with these!

[SFC]

peti~~ɪ~~

Shhhhh!

mo~~ɪ~~

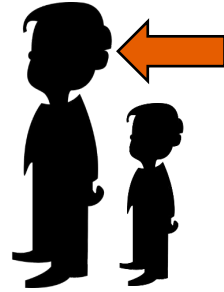

Shhhhh!

gran~~ɪ~~

Shhhhh!

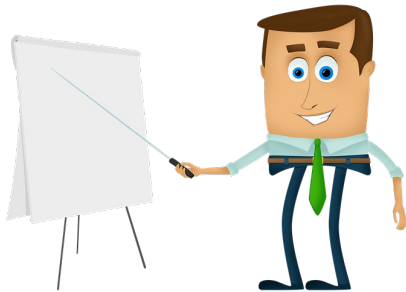

travailler	to work, working
seul(e)	alone
en équipe	outdoors
à l'étranger	abroad
le métier	job
bien/mal payé	well/poorly paid
le but	aim/goal
le poste	job/position
le rêve	dream
au chômage	unemployed

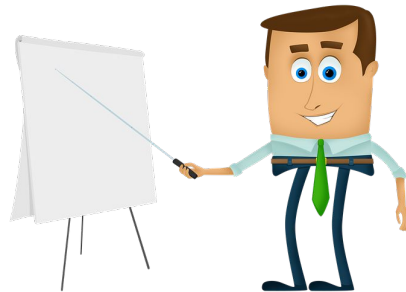

Using the conditional

The conditional is used to talk about what would happen.

1) Je voudrais être professeur

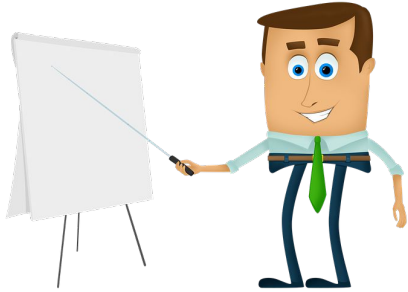

2) J'aimerais être professeur

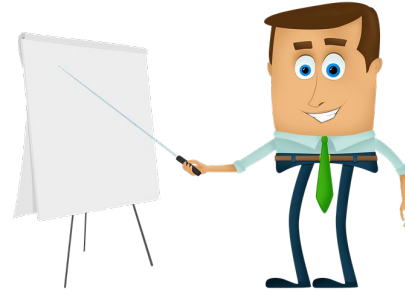

Using the conditional

1) J'aimerais être professeur

2) Mon rêve serait d'être professeur

The Conditional Tense

Subject of the Sentence	The stem. This is the same as the future simple stem	Endings - the same as the imperfect endings
I - Je	Regular ER and IR verbs Infinitive	ais
You - Tu		ais
He / She / You - Il / Elle / On	Regular RE verbs Infinitive minus E	ait
We - Nous		ions
You - Vous	Some irregular verbs have irregular stems. être = 'ser'	iez
They - Ils / Elles		aient

Travailler - to work, working (Regular verb)

Je travaillerais = I would work

Tu travaillerais = You would work

Il travaillerait = he would work

Elle travaillerait = she would work

Nous travaillerions = we would work

Vous travailleriez = you would work

Ils travailleraient = they would work

Elles travailleraient = they would work

On travaillerait = you / we would work

Discussing career choices

1. We use the conditional to = Talk about what we would do
2. I would like = je voudrais/j'aimerais
3. He would like = Il voudrait/aimerait
4. My dream would be = Mon rêve serait
5. The verb ending '-ais' corresponds with the pronoun = je/tu
The verb ending '-ait' corresponds with = il/elle, or singular nouns like 'rêve'

