

French

Making arrangements to go out [3/3]

- Using verb + infinitive

Mr Hodgson

OAK NATIONAL ACADEMY

[eu]

2 deux

un peu

[a little]

[eu]

jeu

lieux

un peu

[a little]

[eu]

jeu

lieux

[ou]

nous

[ou]

trouver

jouer

troujours

[always; still]

[ou]

trouver

jouer

toujours

[always; still]

[eu]

2

deux

[ou]

nous

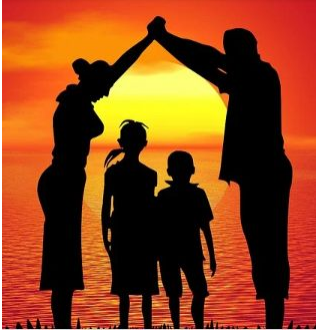

faire	to do
les magasins	the shops
voir	to see
un spectacle	a show
venir	to come
chez moi	to/at my house
rendre visite à	to visit (for a person)
visiter	to visit (for a location)
aller en ville	to go to town
pratiquer	to practise

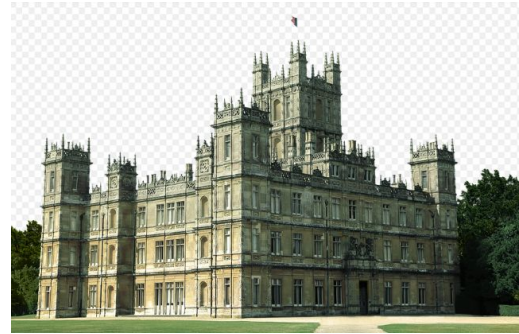

Rendre visite à vs visiter

Je veux rendre visite à mes parents

I want to visit my parents

Je veux visiter le château

I want to visit the castle

Using verb + infinitive constructions

Aller + infinitive = I'm going to ____

Je vais manger = I'm going to eat

Vouloir + infinitive = I want to ____

Je veux manger = I want to eat

The infinitive is the -er, -ir or -re version of the verb.
It means 'to ____' or '____ing'.

Using verb + infinitive constructions

Aller + infinitive = I'm going to ____

Vouloir + infinitive = I want to ____

Je vais = I go/I'm going

Je veux = I want/I'm wanting

Tu vas = You go/You're going

Tu veux = You want/You're wanting

Il va = He goes/He's going

Il veut = He wants/He's wanting

Elle va = She goes/She's going

Elle veut = She wants/She's wanting

On va = You go/You're going
We go/We're going

On veut = You want/You're wanting We want/We're wanting

Making arrangements to go out

1. We use rendre visite à when we are visiting a = person
2. We use visiter when we are visiting a place
3. After 'je veux' and 'je vais' we use an infinitive
4. An infinitive always ends in -er, -ir or -re
5. An infinitive means to _____ or _____ing

