

Religious Education

Recap and Practice

Lesson 6 of 13

Rabbi London

OAK NATIONAL ACADEMY

Fill in the blanks

When a Jewish baby boy is born, they will generally have what is known as a _____ when they are _____ days old. The brit milah brings the baby into the _____ between _____ and _____ and the Jewish people.

The brit milah ceremony is done by the _____. Before the Mohel starts the circumcision, the baby is passed to family members, and for a few moments placed on _____, a special seat for him as according to tradition he attends every brit milah ceremony. The baby will then be given to the _____, who will hold him or be very close by during the circumcision.

After the circumcision, the Mohel will make a blessing over _____, the baby will receive their _____. The Mohel will also pray for the _____ of the mother and baby. Those attending will bless the baby 'just like he entered the covenant, may he merit in _____, marriage, and good deeds.'

WORD BANK: eight, God, Abraham, Sandak, brit milah, covenant, Mohel, Elijah's chair, wine, Torah, name, speedy recovery

Match the verse with the Mitzvah

[Credit: translation by Rabbi London]

Shabbat

Shema

Kosher

Brit Milah

Hear Israel, the Lord (HaShem) is our God,
God is one. (Deut. 6:4)

‘This will be the covenant that you and your children shall keep, every male shall be circumcised. (Gen. 17:10)

Six days you should do your work and on the seventh day is Shabbat to your God, you and those in your household should not do any work. (Exodus 20:9)

You should not eat anything that is considered an abomination. (Deut. 14:3)

