

Latin

Irregular Verbs: eram

Worksheet

Mr Furber

The Irregular Verb 'to be'

Present Tense		Imperfect Tense
sum	I am	eram	I was
es	You (s) are	eras	You (s) were
est	She is	erat	She was
sumus	We are	eramus	We were
estis	You (pl) are	eratis	You (pl) were
sunt	They are	erant	They were

Main Task 2

Translate into English.

1. laetus eram.
2. cibus erat optimus.
3. irati eratis, sed amici estis.
4. prima eram et secundus eras.
5. iratae eramus quod laborabamus.
6. erant multi canes in via.

Challenge

i) Change the tense of these sentences to present or imperfect. ii) Translate.

1. leo est ferox.
2. amici laeti erant.
3. ubi in villa magna habitamus, laetae sumus.

Review

Only turn to this section once you have completed the main task(s).

Main Task 2

Correct your answers.

1. laetus eram. I was happy.
2. cibus erat optimus. The food was excellent.
3. irati eratis, sed amici estis. You (pl) were angry, but you (pl) are friends.
4. prima eram et secundus eras. I was first and you (s) were second.
5. iratae eramus quod laborabamus. We were angry because we were working.
6. erant multi canes in via. There were many dogs in the street.

Challenge

Correct your answers.

1. leo erat ferox. The lion was fierce.
2. amici laeti sunt. The friends are happy.
3. ubi in villa magna habitabamus, laetae eramus. When we were living in the big house, we were happy.

