

German

Celebrations and festivals (Part 1/2)

- Using a range of tenses

Downloadable Resource

Frau Karmi

OAK
NATIONAL ACADEMY

positiv

bevor

[v]

vor

vergessen

voll

Vater

feiern	to celebrate
verbringen	to spend (time)
das Weihnachten	Christmas
das Ostern	Easter
das Silvester	New Year's Eve
der Maitag	May day
der Karneval	Karneval (specific to north Germany)
das Opferfest	Eid al-Adha
das Chanukah	Chanukah
das Fest	party/celebration

Using a range of tenses

Perfect:

Ich habe Schokolade gegessen.

Don't forget you need a form of haben/sein and a past participle at the end of the sentence. Remember regular past participles add a 'ge' and end in 't' and irregular often end in 'en'

Present:

Ich feiere e gern Karneval.

Look at the pronoun to identify the verb endings: -e, -st, -t, -en, -t, -en.

Future:

Ich werde Zeit mit Familie verbringen.

Don't forget you need the present tense of 'werden' and an infinitive at the end of the sentence:
ich werde
er/sie wird
wir werden

Using a range of tenses:

1. What do you need for the perfect tense?

form of haben/sein and a past participle

2. What are the verb endings in the present?

e, st, t, en, t, en

3. What do you need for the future tense?

form of werden and an infinitive

4. How do you say: I like celebrating Christmas

Ich feiere gern Weihnachten

5. How do you say: I will celebrate New Year's Eve with friends.

Ich werde Silvester mit Freunden feiern

