

Science - Biology - Key Stage 3
Cells, Tissues and Organs

Lesson 2 - Unicellular organisms

(Downloadable Student Document)

Miss Wickham

OAK
NATIONAL ACADEMY

Write a short paragraph comparing the similarities and differences between two types of unicellular organisms

Similarities between yeast and bacteria are...

Both yeast and bacteria have..

Yeast and bacteria both reproduce by...

Differences between yeast and bacteria are...

Only bacteria has a...

Key words: cytoplasm, cell membrane, cell wall, plasmids, DNA, flagella, binary fission

A student said to their teacher “all bacteria are bad, which is why fungus is better than bacteria”. Explain to the student why this statement is not true.

Bacteria can be bad because...

Although, benefits of bacteria are...

Fungi is good because...

However, fungi can also be bad because...

Key words: infection, salmonella, cheese, fermentation, digestive system

