

English

Lesson 18: Jane Eyre

Jane's rival

Downloadable Resource

Mr Johnston

OAK
NATIONAL ACADEMY

Who set Rochester's bed on fire?

Option 1

Grace Poole set Rochester's bed on fire.

Option 2

Jane set Rochester's bed on fire.

Option 3

Nobody knows who set Rochester's bed on fire.

Option 4

Rochester claims that Grace Poole set his bed on fire but we do not know whether this is true.

1. On the morning after the f____, Jane meets Grace Poole.
2. Jane is amazed by how c____ Grace looks. It seems strange that this servant was responsible for setting Rochester's b____ on f____.
3. Jane is also confused when Rochester does not f____ Grace Poole from her job. He continues to employ her as a servant.

True or false

1. Jane is not treated as a true member of the Reed family.
2. Jane does not think that she is attractive.
3. Jane has a high social status in Thornfield Hall.

Complete the sentences

1. Rochester seems to love Jane but...
2. Even though Rochester does not love Blanche Ingram,...
3. Whereas Jane is 'plain-looking' and kind, Blanche Ingram is...
4. Brontë creates tension in this extract through...

Extension task - How does Brontë contrast Jane and Blanche Ingram?

In your answer, you could mention:

- Their contrasting appearances
- Their contrasting social positions
- Their contrasting characters
- Rochester's feelings for each woman

