

Spanish

Talking about possessions (Part 1/2)

- Use of este/esta/estos/estas
- Querer (singular persons)

Downloadable Resource

Señorita Allinson

OAK NATIONAL ACADEMY

el vestido	dress
la camiseta	t-shirt
las botas	boots
los zapatos	shoes
la falda	skirt
la gorra	cap
gris	grey
la estrella	star
querer	to want, wanting

Querer (to want, wanting)

To say “I want” in Spanish, use Quiero

To say “You want” in Spanish, use Quieres

To say “He/she wants” in Spanish, use Quiere

Este/Esta

The word for 'this' in Spanish depends on whether the noun it is referring to is masculine or feminine.

Compare:

Quiero este vestido

I want this dress

Quiero esta camiseta

I want this T-shirt

el vestido is a masculine noun.
Therefore, we need to use 'este'.

la camiseta is a feminine noun.
Therefore, we need to use 'esta'.

Estos/Estas

The word for 'these' in Spanish depends on whether the noun it is referring to is masculine or feminine (the noun is in the plural).

Compare:

Quiero estos zapatos

I want these shoes

Quiero estas camisetas

I want these t-shirts

Summary

1. To say 'this' in Spanish, use the words 'este/esta'
2. The adjective 'this' depends on whether the noun they are describing is masculine or feminine.
3. 'Este vestido' means 'this dress'
4. To say 'these' in Spanish, use the words 'estos/estas'
5. Translate: "I want these shoes" Quiero estos zapatos

