

Mathematics

Solving problems involving converting between units of time

Miss Darwish

Independent task

Design a training schedule for yourself and three friends or other members of your extended family, as you will be taking part in the London Marathon in April next year.

- Each member of your family/friends must have a different training schedule.
- The total hours of training must lie between 70 and 100 hours.

