

Combined Science - Biology - Key Stage 4

Review 2

Miss Todd

Independent practice

Turn each of these questions into a revision card.

- Name three ways white blood cells fight pathogens.
- What are antibodies?
- What do antibodies bind to?

Independent Practice

These statements are incorrect re write them to make them more scientifically accurate.

1. A vaccine contains a little bit of the disease.
2. Once we've been infected with a pathogen we are immune because our white blood cells remember how to fight it of.
3. White blood cells eat pathogens.

Independent practice

Turn each of these questions into a revision card.

- Why do antibiotics not treat viruses?
- How do we calculate the area of an antibiotic clear zone?
- What is in a vaccine?

Independent practice

Turn each of these questions into a revision card.

- Where do many drugs originate from?
- What is efficacy?
- What is a placebo?
- What is a double-blind trial?

