Aeneas patrem tergo posuit. Aeneas filium manu tenuit. Aeneas familiam duxit, primus. Creusa ambulabat, ultima. familia ad silvam extra urbem currebat. sed ad silvam, Aeneas Creusam quaesivit – Creusa non aderat! Aeneas timuit. maritus ad urbem retro festinavit et uxorem quaerebat. subito Aeneas Creusam conspexit, sed erat umbra.

Aeneas placed his father on his back. Aeneas held his son by the hand. Aeneas led his household, first. Creusa was walking, last. The household was running to the wood outside the city. But at the wood, Aeneas searched for Creusa - Creusa was not there! Aeneas feared. The husband hurried back to the city and was searching for his wife. Suddenly Aeneas noticed Creusa, but she was a ghost.
