

French

Say what people have [2/2]

- Avoir*: singular
- Position of adjectives with nouns

Madame Sooden

[i]

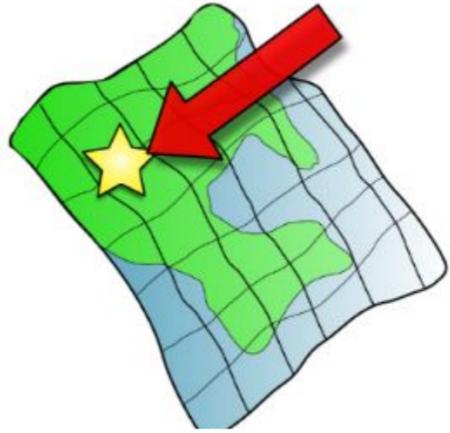

midi

A rounded rectangular box containing an analog clock with a blue face and gold rim, showing the time 12:00. Below the clock, the word "midi" is written in a lowercase, sans-serif font, with the 'i' characters highlighted in pink.

ici

[i]

qui ?

i |

[eu]

2

deux

un peu

[a little]

[eu]

jeu

lieux

[place]

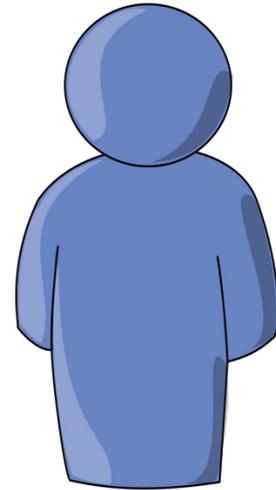

une chambre		a room
une voiture		a car
un animal		a pet
un chien		a dog
un ordinateur		a computer
un portable		a mobile phone
un vélo		a bike
rapide		fast
cher, chère		expensive
moderne		modern

Avoir - to have

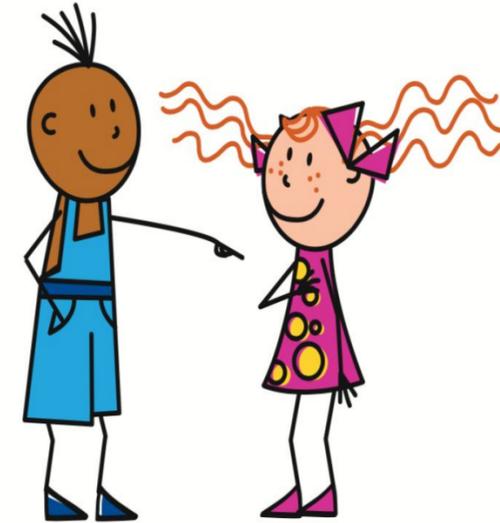

J'ai = I have

To refer to yourself

Tu as = You have

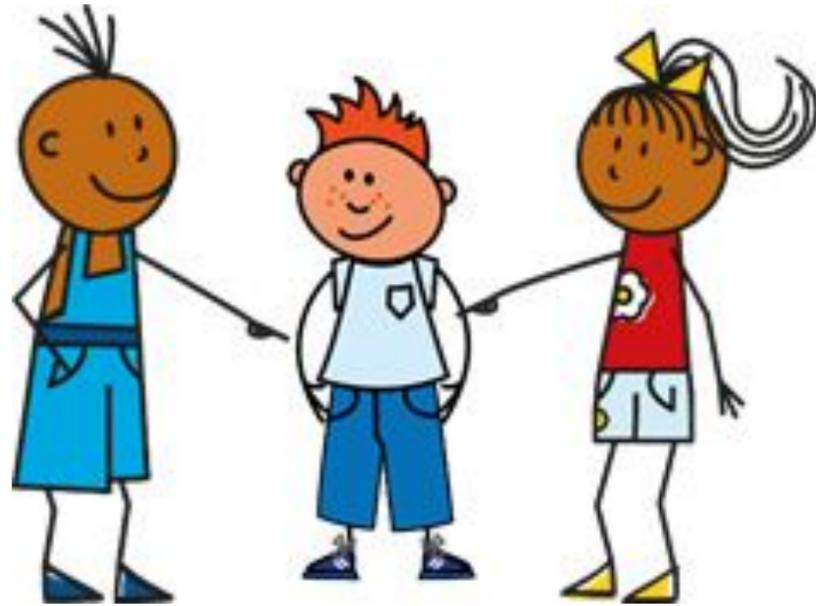

To refer to another specific person

Avoir - to have

Il a = He has

To refer to a singular male

Elle a = She has

To refer to a singular female

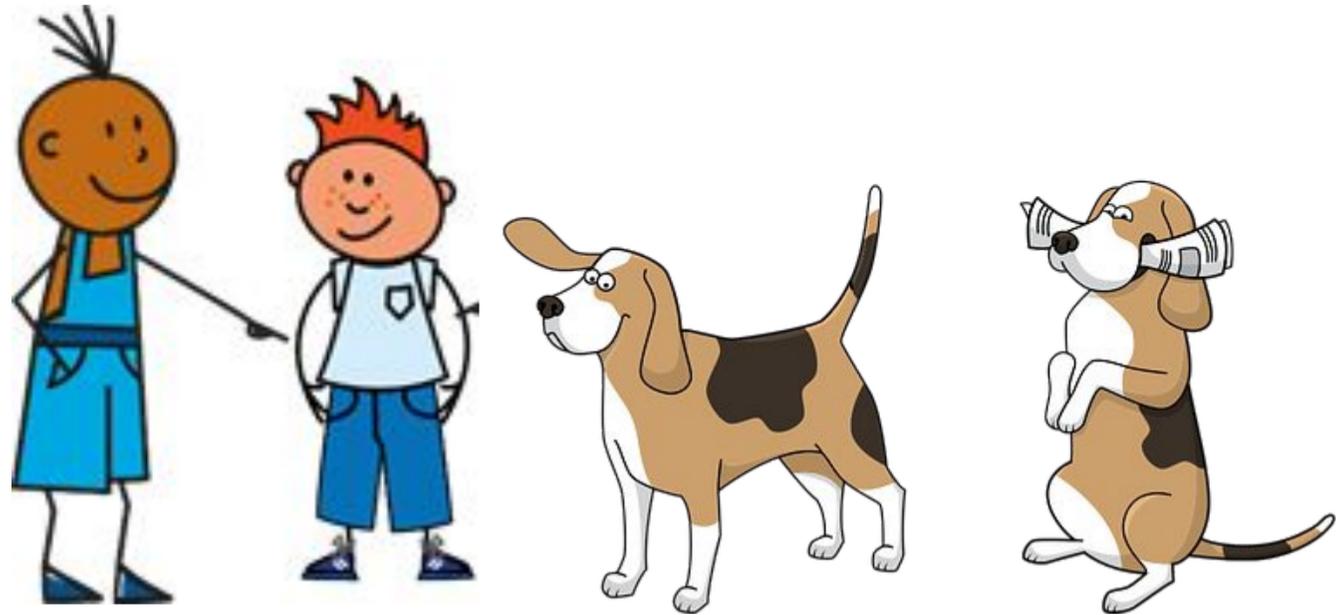

Avoir - to have

Use avoir with a noun to say what people have.

Il a un chien

He has a dog

Elle a une chambre

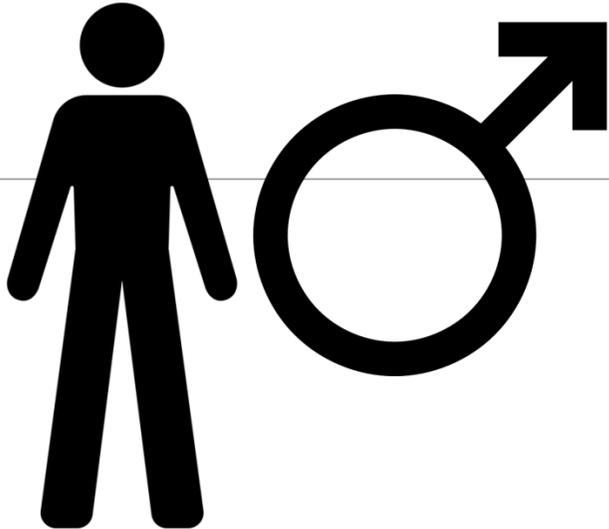

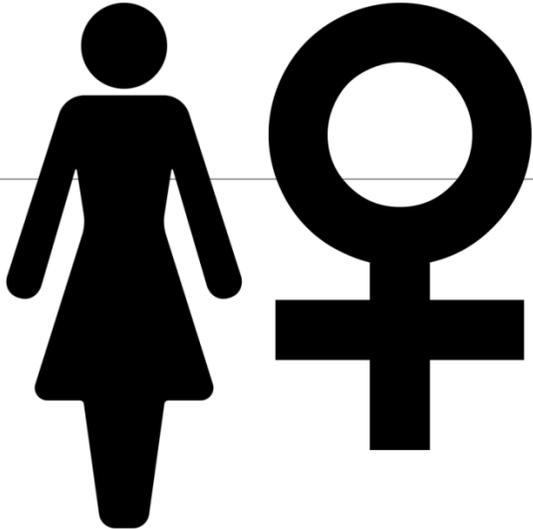

She has a bedroom

Indefinite articles

- In English we have the indefinite article a.
- In French, you choose from un and une.
- This depends on whether the noun is masculine or feminine.

	Masculine	Feminine
Indefinite	un ✓ 	une ✓

French adjectives with nouns

Pre-nominal adjectives

Clue:

Pre

Position= Before noun

une belle maison

a beautiful house

Post-nominal adjectives

Clue:

Post

Position= After noun

un vélo rapide

a fast bike

Réponse

1. J'ai un animal moderne. I have a modern pet.
2. J'ai un chien rapide. I have a fast dog.
3. Tu as un portable cher. You have an expensive mobile.
4. Il a un ordinateur rapide. He has a fast computer.
5. Elle a une chambre chère. She has an expensive bedroom.

Say what people have

- 1 What is the verb 'to have' in French? avoir
- 2 'She has' in French elle a
- 3 'He has' in French il a
- 4 Position of post-nominal adjective after the noun
- 5 'Fast' in French rapide
- 6 Expensive can be 'cher' or 'chère', why? masc / feminine

