

French

Distinguish between parts and wholes [2 / 2]

- Partitive articles
- Combien

Madame Sooden

[oi]

trois

droite

Pourqu*oi* ?

[why?]

amusant

[u]

utiliser

[to use]

sur

[on]

[ê / è]

fête

frère

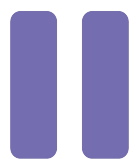

collège

Vocabulary list for this lesson:

la glace	ice-cream
le poisson	fish
le pain	bread
l'agneau	lamb
les œufs	eggs
la viande	meat
le fromage	cheese
le chocolat	chocolate
le fruit	fruit
la pizza	pizza

5
4
3
2
1

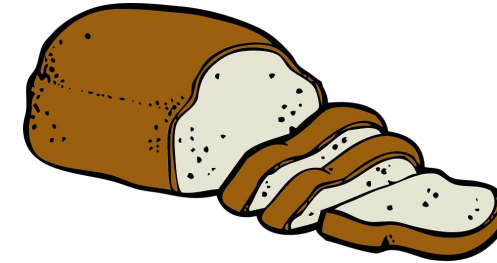

Partitive articles - To say 'some' in French/refer to part of a noun.

Before a masculine noun:

some
de	le

du

du pain

Before a feminine
noun:

some
de	la

de la

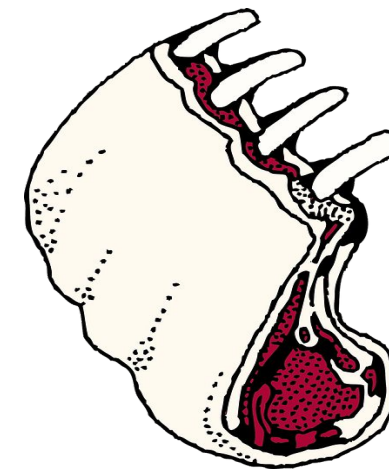

de la glace

Before a noun with a
vowel / h:

some
de	l'

de l'

de l'agneau

Using combien

Combien  How much?

C'est combien?

How much is it?

Ça coûte

It costs...

Using combien

Combien  How much?

Une glace coûte combien?

How much
is an ice cream?

Une glace coûte...

*An ice cream
costs...*

Distinguish between parts and wholes

- | | | |
|---|--|--------------------------|
| 1 | Conjugate acheter : je ____. | achète |
| 2 | Conjugate acheter : elle ____. | achète |
| 3 | Identify the partitive article : des / un | des |
| 4 | Translate 'combien' into English. | how much |
| 5 | Translate 'ça coûte' into English. | it costs |
| 6 | Translate ' How much is a whole pizza? '. | Une pizza coûte combien? |

