

English

Writing about 'The Chimney Sweeper'

Lesson 4 of 12

Miss Baldry

How does Blake present injustice in ‘The Chimney Sweeper’?

WHAT the writer does.	William Blake, a Romantic poet, presents the young chimney sweepers as victims of injustice in an unequal society.
HOW the writer does this.	Use the quotations ‘like a lambs back’ and ‘coffins of black’ and analyse these by using analytical verbs.
WHY the writer does this.	Consider why Blake does this: what is his message? You may wish to begin this sentence: Here Blake criticises...

