

English

LO: To explore how writers create mood

Lesson 7 of 10

Mrs Howley

Example 1

When the crowds erupted into cheers, she stopped stunned in the bright sunshine. A warm glow rippled through her body. She had crossed the finish line first. She jumped up and down punching the air as the team crowded around her. 'I can't believe it,' she thought. Happiness filled the stadium.

© Storytelling Schools, used from 147 Stories for Primary School Children to Retell, courtesy of Hawthorn Press

Example 2

She took a tiny step forward into the cold darkness of the cave.

‘What am I doing?’ she thought. ‘I must be mad!’
Fear pulsed down her spine. Her skin had turned pale and sweat dripped from her brow. Her heart pounded as she edged closer.

© Storytelling Schools, used from 147 Stories for Primary School Children to Retell, courtesy of Hawthorn Press

