LO: To explore how writers create vivid description

Lesson 7 of 10

Miss Howley

The waves crashed and the seagulls screamed. The king felt the salty water hit his face. The sea was cold and biting. One huge wave started to come closer. The dark waters swelled and they started to hit the boat.

People yelled and the king turned white. He felt sick as the boat rocked from side to side. The freezing waters began to touch his toes.
