Mr Leeford	Adopts	Will	Separated

Complete the paragraph

Mr Leeford married Mrs Leeford and had a son called Edward, otherwise known as _____. Mr Leeford separated from his wife and fell in love with _____. They had a son called _____. Mr Leeford wanted to leave his _____ for Oliver. Mr Leeford's will said that Oliver would only receive his inheritance if he did not commit any crimes, otherwise it would be given to Monks. Monks therefore tried to arrange for Oliver to be _____ and turned into a criminal.

Thankfully, Oliver has lived a moral life throughout this story and receives his inheritance. At the end of the novel, he is adopted by _____ and lives happily ever after.

Kidnapped	Agnes	Mr Brownlow
Inheritance	Oliver	Monks
