

Latin

Irregular Verbs: eo Downloadable Resource

Mr Furber

The Irregular Verb eo

- The Latin verb eo ('to go') is irregular in the present tense.
- In other forms and tenses, it has the very short stem i-.

Tense	Latin	English
Present	eo, i-	I go
Imperfect	ibam	I was going
Perfect	ivi, ii	I went
Pluperfect	iveram, ieram	I had gone

The Irregular Verb eo

eo	I go
is	You (s) go
it	She goes
imus	We go
itis	You (pl) go
eunt	They go
ire (infinitive)	to go
i (imperative, s)	Go! (s)
ite (imperative, pl)	Go! (pl)
iens, eunt- (pres part)	going

The Irregular Verb eo - Compound Verbs

Prefix		Compound
Latin	English	Latin	English
ab-	away	abeo, abi-	I go away
ad-	towards	adeo, adi-	I go towards
circum-	around	circumeo, circum-i-	I go around
ex-	out of	exo, exi-	I go out, exit
in-	into	ineo, ini-	I go into, enter
red-	back	redeo, redi-	I go back, return
trans-	across	transeo, transi-	I go across

Perfect tense: always -ii in compounds
pereo* = 'I die' (not 'I go through')

Main Task 1

Translate into English.

1. is.
2. ibas.
3. ivit.
4. adeunt.
5. exibamus.

6. rediistis.
7. adierant.
8. abi.
9. transire
10. circumeuntem

Downloadable
Resource Slides
2-3: Verb tables

Main Task 2

Translate into English.

See downloadable
resource slides 2-3

1. regina irata exiit.
2. nos a bello abibamus.
3. nunc tu in urbem inire potes.
4. rex naves parabat ut ad insulam adiret.
5. deus uxorem ad caelum redeuntem conspexit.
6. Romani, cum dux hostium ad eos transisset, tandem urbem ceperunt.

Don't forget the Challenge!

Challenge

Translate these easily confused forms of audio, advenio and adeo into English.

1. adiisti.
2. audivisti.
3. adierunt.
4. advenerunt.
5. adeunt.

6. adveniunt.
7. adierant.
8. audient.
9. audientem
10. adiens

Review

Only turn to this section once you have completed the main task(s).

Main Task 1: Review

Correct your answers.

- |                                         |                                             |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| 1. is . You (s) go.              | 6. rediistis . You (pl) went back.   |
| 2. ibas . You (s) were going.    | 7. adierant . They had gone towards. |
| 3. ivit . She went.              | 8. abi . Go away! (s)                |
| 4. adeunt . They go towards.     | 9. transire to go across             |
| 5. exibamus . We were going out. | 10. circumeuntem going around.       |

Main Task 2: Review

Correct your answers.

1. regina irata exiit. The angry queen went out.
2. nos a bello abibamus. We were going from the war.
3. nunc tu in urbem inire potes. Now you are able to go into the city.
4. rex naves parabat ut ad insulam adiret. The king was preparing ships (in order) to go to the island.

Main Task 2: Review

Correct your answers.

5. deus uxorem ad caelum redeuntem conspexit. The god noticed his wife going back to the sky.
6. Romani, cum dux hostium ad eos transiisset, tandem urbem ceperunt. The Romans, when the leader of the enemy had gone across to them, finally took the city.

Challenge: Review

Correct your answers.

- |                                      |                                        |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| 1. adiisti . You (s) went to. | 6. adveniunt . They arrive.     |
| 2. audivisti . You (s) heard. | 7. adierant . They had gone to. |
| 3. adierunt . They went to.   | 8. audient . They will hear.    |
| 4. advenerunt . They arrived. | 9. audientem hearing            |
| 5. adeunt . They go to.       | 10. adiens going to             |

