To explore a range of existing products

Design and technology - Textiles: templates and joining techniques

Miss Larham

What is this product?

Who might use this product?

Where might this product be used?

What material is this product made from?

How many parts is the product made from?

What joining technique has been used?

Why do you think that joining technique has been used?

What finishing techniques have been used?

What do you like and dislike about the product?