LO: To explore how writers create interesting characters

Lesson 7 of 10

Miss Fryer

The wise woman sat calmly on the floor of her simple forest hut, her grey hair tied neatly back with a bright red scarf.

She carefully turned the pages of her book with her long, bony fingers. The colourful pictures made her smile. Just then, she heard a knock at her door.

“I wonder who that could be?” she said out loud, to her empty hut. “Come in!” she called, warmly, without looking up.
