

Spanish

- Describing different family members [2/2]
- Use of tener with idiomatic expressions
 - Use of tener que and tener ganas de (Plural persons)

Señorita Allinson

olvidar

[to forget]

solo

[alone]

[o]

yo poco

[little, few]

dos

con

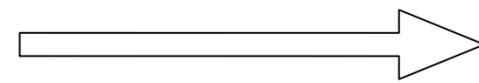

el miedo	fear
el sueño	sleepiness
el éxito	success
la hambre	hunger
el sed	thirst
la suerte	luck
el calor	heat
el razón	reason
encontrar	to find, finding perder	to lose, losing

Tener ganas de

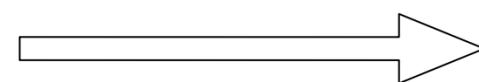

To say you feel like doing something, use the phrase tener ganas de.

Tenemos ganas de bailar.

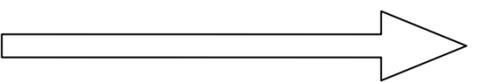

We feel like dancing.

Tenéis ganas de bailar.

You (plural) feel like dancing.

Tienen ganas de bailar.

They feel like dancing

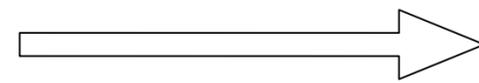

TENER GANAS DE is followed by the infinitive form of the verb.

Tener + que

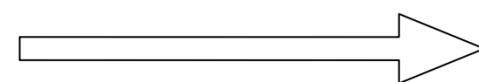

To say you have to do something, use the word 'que' after tener.

Tenemos que jugar.

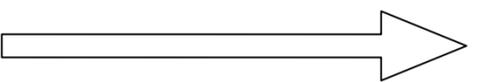

We have to play.

Tenéis que jugar.

You (plural) have to play.

Tienen que jugar.

They have to play

TENER + QUE is followed by the infinitive form of the verb.

Summary

1. The verb tener means: to have/having.
2. The 'we' form of tener is: tenemos.
3. Tener que must be followed by the infinitive.
4. Tener ganas de means: to feel like.
5. 'They have to' is: 'tienen que'.

