Say what you want to do and what you must / have to do [1/2]

- Modal verbs devoir and savoir

Madame Johnson

[é]

écrire

[-er]
[-et]

[é / er / et]

bébé

aller

et

[and]

|
partager	to share
le billet	ticket
visiter	to visit
désolé	sorry
pouvoir	to be able to devoir	to have to
savoir	to know
vouloir	to want chercher	to look for

Devoir - to have to/must Je dois- I must/have to Tu dois - You (specific) must / have to Il doit - He must / has to Elle doit - She must / has to

On doit - You (general) must/have to

Devoir - to have to / must

Use devoir with an infinitive to say what you must do:

Je dois rester chez moi.

I must stay at home.

Je dois faire les magasins.
I must go shopping.
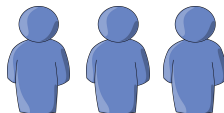

Savoir - to know (how to)

Je sais - I know

Tu sais - You (specific) know

Il sait - He knows

Elle sait - She knows

On sait - You (general) know

Savoir - to know how to do something

Use savoir with an infinitive to say what you know how to do :

Je sais jouer au tennis

I know how to play tennis

Je sais parler l'anglais

I know how to speak English

Say what you want to do and must do [1/2]

1. The verb devoir means to have to / must
2. I must = je dois
3. The verb savoir means = to be know (how to)
4. I know = je sais
5. He must = il doit
6. You (specific) know = tu sais