

Matching Symbols to Sequence Story

For this lesson you will need:

- 'We're Going on a Lion Hunt' by David Axtell, a sensory story resource.

Sequencing instructions

In this lesson we are going to sequence the 'We're Going on a Lion Hunt' story by David Axtell. This lesson should be used alongside that resource to extend learning.

Adult support will be required.

Getting ready

We are learning about putting a story sequence in order

Activity 1

1. Can you match the picture and the symbol for this part of the story?

1. Can you match the picture and the symbol for this part of the story?

1. Which symbol goes with this part of the story?

1. Can you match the picture and the symbol for this part of the story?

Activity 2: Identifying first and last

1. Where did the girls go first?

Activity 2: Identifying first and last

1. Where did the girls go last?

Activity 3: Putting events in order

1. In what order did the girls visit these places in the story?

Make it easier

Use photos rather than symbols and accompany them with actual objects to make the activity more tangible. Use simple language and offer a choice of two.

Make it harder

Encourage the learner to use symbols and to complete the activities with independence.

More ideas

Try making your own version of the Lion Hunt with places around your home!

References

- Slide 5: (Unmowed) grass 1 - Natubico - Wikimedia Commons (Attribution-ShareAlike 3.0 Unported (CC BY-SA 3.0))
- Slide 6: Cusheon Lake in the early morning, Saltspring Island, British Columbia, Canada - Michal Klajban - Wikimedia Commons (Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International (CC BY-SA 4.0))
- Slide 7: Illuminated rocky cavern - Ksenia Kudelkina - Unsplash
- Slide 8: A peat bog below the top of Doune Hill, Luss Hills, Scotland - Michal Klajban - Wikimedia Commons (Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International (CC BY-SA 4.0))

